Gideon, printer.

At a circuit of court of the United States, for the first circuit, holden at Providence, within and for the Rhode Island district, on the fifteenth of November, A. D. 1849.

Present, the honorable Levi Woodbury, associate justice Supreme Court, U. S.; the honorable John Pitman, U. S. district judge, for R. I. district; James M. Clark, esq., U. S. district attorney, for said district; George W. Jackson, esq., U. S. marshal; John T. Pitman, clerk of circuit court.

Among other causes disposed of was the following:

Bill in equity.

JAMES STEVENS }
vs.
ISAAC H. CADY. }

Be it remembered, that on the nineteenth day of May, A. D. 1847, of the circuit court of the United States, for the Rhode Island district, the following bill was filed:

CIRCUIT COURT, Rhode Island district.

In chancery.

To the judges of the circuit court of the United States, for the district of Rhode Island.

James Stevens, of the town and county of Newport, State of Rhode Island, &c., and a citizen of the State of Rhode Island, &c., brings this his bill against Isaac H. Cady, of the city and county of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, &c., a citizen of the State of Rhode Island, &c.; and thereupon your orator complains and says:

That, according to an act of the United States, entitled "An act to amend the several acts respecting copy rights, (approved on the third day of February, 1831, it is, among other things, enacted,) 'that from and after the passing of this act, any person or persons, being a citizen or citizens of the United States, or resident therein, who shall be the author or authors of any book or books, map, chart, or musical composition, which may be now made or composed, and not printed and published, or shall hereafter be made or composed, or who shall design, etch, engrave, work, or cause to be engraved, etched, or worked, from his own design, any print or engraving, and the executors, administrators, or legal assigns of such person or persons, shall have the sole right and liberty of printing, re-printing, publishing, and vending such book or books, map, chart, musical composition, print, cut, or engraving, in whole or in part, for the time of twenty-eight years, from time of recording the title thereof, in the manner hereinafter directed.'"

[REC. cc, D. T., 1851.]—1

Your orator obtained the sole and exclusive right for twenty-eight years, and did, pursuant to the act of Congress aforesaid, with great cost, labor, science, and skill, from his own survey and design, cause to be etched, engraved, printed, published, and sold, "a topographical map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations;" and pursuant to the fourth section of the act aforesaid, your orator deposited a printed copy of the title of said topographical map, in the clerk's office of the district court of Rhode Island district, and the clerk of said district court made a record thereof forthwith, in a book kept for that purpose, in the words following:

"DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND, to wit:

"Be it remembered, that on the twenty-third day of April, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, James Stevens, of said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a map, the title of which is in the words following:

"A topographical map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, surveyed trigonometrically and in detail by James Stevens, topographer and civil engineer, Newport, R. I., 1831, the right whereof he claims as author in conformity with the act of Congress, entitled 'an act to amend the several acts respecting copy rights.'

"Signed,

BENJAMIN COWELL,

"Clerk of the Rhode Island district."

And your orator further states, that within three months from the publication of said map, he delivered a copy of the same to the clerk of said district; and your orator further states, that according to the fifth section of the act aforesaid he caused to be impressed on the face of the map aforesaid, the following words, viz:

"Entered according to act of Congress, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, by James Stevens, in the clerk's office of the district court of Rhode Island district."

And your orator further states, that according to the seventh section of the act aforesaid, it is further enacted—

"That, if any person or persons, after the recording the title of any print, cut, or engraving, map, chart, or musical composition, according to the provisions of this act, shall within the term or terms limited by this act, engrave, etch, or work, sell, or copy, or cause to be engraved, etched, worked, or sold, or copied, either on the whole, or by varying, adding to, or diminishing the main design, with intent to evade the law, or shall print or import for sale, or cause to be printed or imported for sale, any such map, chart, musical composition, print, cut, or engraving, or any parts thereof, without the consent of the proprietor or proprietors of the copy right thereof first obtained in writing, signed in presence of two credible witnesses; or knowing the same to be so printed or imported without such consent, shall publish, sell, or expose to sale, or in any manner dispose of any such map, chart, musical composition, engraving, cut, or print, without such consent as aforesaid; then such offender or offenders shall forfeit the plate or plates on which such map, chart, musical composition, engraving, cut, or print shall be copied, and also all and every sheet thereof so copied or printed as aforesaid, to the proprietor or proprietors of the copy right thereof; and shall further forfeit one dollar for every sheet of such map, chart, musical composition, print, cut, or engraving which may be found in his or their possession, printed or published, or exposed to sale, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act; the one moiety thereof to the proprietor or proprietors, and the other moiety to the use of the United States, to be recovered in any court having competent jurisdiction thereof."

And that under the provisions of this seventh section of the act aforesaid, your orator never did, at any time, or to any person whatever, give consent, either verbally, in writing, or in any other manner, to etch, engrave, or work, or sell, or copy, or alter, print, reprint, publish, or expose to sale, any of the maps of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, for which your orator hath obtained the copy right; but that, on the contrary, your orator always has been, and still continues to be, the sole proprietor of the map aforesaid, and that he always has printed, published and sold, and still continues to print, publish, and sell, by himself, his servants, and his duly authorized agents, the maps for which he obtained the copy right aforesaid.

And your orator further states, that having great reason to believe and expect that the sales of the copy right map aforesaid would be rapid, extensive, and profitable, and that under the provisions and protection of the act of Congress herein above named, your orator should continue to print, publish, and sell the map aforesaid, and to enjoy the sole benefit, profit, and advantage arising therefrom, without his copy right thereto being violated or infringed upon, or having any molestation or hindrance therein, from, or by any person or persons whomsoever, as in justice and equity ought to have been the case.

But now, so it is, that one Isaac H. Cady, of the city and county of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, &c., in Rhode Island district, bookseller and stationer, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, combining and confederating together, and with divers persons, at present unknown to your orator, whose names, when discovered, your orator prays he may be at liberty to insert herein, with apt words to charge them as parties hereto; and contriving how to wrong and injure your orator, by depriving your orator of the gains and profits which he was and is entitled to have and receive from the sole and exclusive printing, publishing, and selling of the topographical map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, the copy right to which was, and still is, the sole property of your orator; and that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, since your orator had obtained his copy right to print, publish, and sell his genuine and legitimate map aforesaid, have also, within the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, printed, published, and sold, or caused to be printed, published, and sold, a certain other topographical map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, of the same size, the same lettering, the same topographical characters, and the same general appearance in the body of the main design, as the true copy right map of your orator, with the exception of the addition of the names of a few unimportant private places, and the erasure of two or three small spots therein, and the insertion of parts of two or three railroads, now built or contemplated.

And your orator further charges that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others have, the more effectually to pass off on the public their spurious, illegitimate, and pirated map aforesaid, assumed the same title in every respect as that of your orator's genuine copy right map, with the trifling exception of the erasure of the word "Newport, R. I.," and the insertion of the words "with additions and corrections by S. B. Cushing and H. F. Walling," and the alteration of the date 1831 to 1846.

And your orator further charges that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, have impressed on the face of their spurious, illegitimate, and pirated map aforesaid the notice of the "entry required by act of Congress" to be impressed on the face of the copy right map, and in said notice, so impressed, they have erased the words "thirty-one," and inserted in the place thereof the words "forty-six;" they have also erased the name of your orator, and inserted the name of "Isaac H. Cady" thereon; and many other wrongs and injuries have done in and about the premises.

And your orator further charges, that the copper plate engraving, from which your orator's genuine copy right map was printed or impressed, has been for some time past discarded and wholly laid aside by him from any further use, it being the intention and determination of your orator to have the map aforesaid etched and engraved on steel plates, for the purpose of producing a better and more distinct appearance of the whole work, and for correcting any defect which may be found in the original design, and for inserting all the new improvements, railroads, factories, mills, and churches thereon, so as to produce as complete a topographical map as possible.

That your orator has good reason to suspect and believe that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, have obtained the same identical copperplate engraved as aforesaid, by some means to your orator wholly unknown; and have used the same copperplate, or a very similar one, (to every appearance, from the great and striking resemblance of, and the exact mathematical dimensions and locations of all its parts, with that of your orator's copy right map,) for the purpose of printing therefrom the spurious, illegitimate, and pirated edition of the map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

And your orator further charges, that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, the more effectually to increase the sales of their spurious, illegitimate, and pirated map, and to prevent the sale of your orator's genuine copy right map, have sold, and still continue to sell, their spurious, illegitimate, and pirated maps, at and for a much lower price than your orator's genuine copy right map were or are sold for, whereby the sale of your orator's said maps has been for a considerable time past, and still is, greatly lessened and hindered, to the great damage, injury, and prejudice of your orator; and the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, to give color to such unjust and unfair proceedings; sometimes pretend that the said map, so printed, published, and sold by them, is not the same map printed, published, and sold by your orator, but is another and different map; whereas your orator charges that the said map, so printed, published, and sold by the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, is in fact the same map as that printed, published, and sold by your orator, and for which he has obtained the legal copy right, being the same impression in all its parts, except some small alterations and additions to give color to their unjust pretensions, and they sometimes give out and pretend, that your orator's map was not, nor is, printed, published, and sold by them for their own use and benefit, or by their directions.

Whereas your orator charges that they, the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, have either printed and published, or have caused their spurious, illegitimate, and pirated edition of the map aforesaid, to be printed and published at their own expense, in order to sell and dispose of the same at an under rate, or cheaper price, for their own benefit, and thereby deprive your orator of the sole benefit and advantage of his copy right in his said map; that a copy of the spurious, illegitimate, and pirated map aforesaid, has been purchased from the store of said Isaac H. Cady, in the city of Providence, Rhode Island, for the sum of two dollars, and your orator charges, that said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, have sold and disposed of two thousand or a great number of copies of the spurious, illegitimate, and pirated map, not only at their own stores in a retail way, but also to different booksellers in foreign parts, beyond the precincts of this district, for their own benefit and advantage, and they threaten that they will continue to print, publish, and sell as many of said maps, or cause to be printed, published, and sold for their own benefit and advantage, as they may think proper, and notwithstanding your orator hath requested the said Isaac H. Cady, and through him his servants, workmen, agents, and others, to desist and abstain from such proceedings, and also (according to act of Congress herein before mentioned) to deliver to your orator, who is the sole proprietor of the copy right, "the plate or plates on which said map has been copied," and also all and every sheet thereof so copied or printed, and also to pay unto your orator the "forfeiture of one dollar for every sheet thereof so printed and published," the one moiety of which to the use of the United States; yet, though so requested, they still refuse so to do. All of which actings, doings, pretences, and refusals are contrary to equity and good conscience, and tend to the manifest wrong and injury of your orator in the premises; in consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your orator can only have adequate relief in the premises in this court of equity, where matters of this nature are properly cognizable and relievable. To the end, therefore, that the defendants may, if they can, show why your orator should not have the relief hereby prayed, and may, upon their several and respective corporal oaths, and according to the best and utmost of their several and respective knowledge, remembrance, information, and belief, full, true, direct, and perfect answer make, to such of the several interrogatories hereinafter numbered and set forth, as by the note hereunder written they are respectfully required to answer, that is to say:

1. Whether any, and if any what, number of copies of the maps above named, you or your servants, workmen, agents, or others, have printed or caused to be printed by your or their order, or by either of their orders, for your and their or either of their use or benefit?

2. Whether any, and if any what, number of copies of the map above named have been sold or disposed of by you, or by others for you, for your own benefit, or their or either of their benefit, and at what price or prices said maps have been sold for and continue to be sold for?

3. Whether any, and if any what, number of the copies of the map above named remain unsold, and in whose hands or possession said maps or any of them are or remain?

4. Who printed the maps above named, and where and at what place were they printed; by whom were said maps colored; by whom were they fitted up ready for sale, and at what price or prices?

5. Who engraved the copperplate on which the above named map was printed, and at what cost or price, in whole and in part?

6. Who drafted on the copperplate, or otherwise, the railroads and other alterations and additions to the map above named, and at what cost or expense?

7. In whose hands or possession is the copper plate on which you, or some other person or persons for you, have engraved the map above named?

8. Who were and now are your servants, workmen, agents, and others, who assisted you in printing, publishing, selling, and exposing to sale, all or any of the above named maps, for your or their use or benefit, or for either of their use or benefit, and who confederated with you and others, or with you alone, for the purpose of printing, publishing, vending, or exposing to sale for your or their profit, use, and benefit the maps above named?

9. Do you know, or can you set forth, any other matter or thing, which may be a benefit or advantage to the parties at issue in this cause, or either of them, or that may be material to the subject of this your examination, or the matters in question in this cause? If yea, set forth the same fully and at large in your answer.

And that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, his confederates, may be respectively restrained by the order and injunction of this honorable court, from the further printing, publishing, selling, or exposing to sale by themselves, their servants, or agents, the said map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, or in any way being concerned in the printing, publishing, selling, or exposing to sale any copy or copies of the said map, or of any other map or maps purporting to be, or resembling the map printed, published, and sold by your orator.

And that the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, his confederates, may be decreed (according to the act of Congress herein above named) to deliver to your orator "the plate or plates," on which they have printed or caused to be printed the spurious, illegitimate, and pirated maps of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations; and also to deliver unto your orator "all and every sheet thereof, so copied or printed," and that they be also further decreed to pay into the hands of your orator the forfeiture of one dollar for every sheet of said map which they have printed or caused to be printed or published, or exposed to sale, "one moiety thereof to your orator, and the other moiety to the use of the United States.

May it please this honorable court to grant unto your orator a writ of subpœna, to be directed to the said Isaac H. Cady, his servants, workmen, agents, and others, thereby commanding him and them, at a certain day, and under certain pains therein to be limited, personally to be and appear before this honorable court, and then and there full, true, direct, and perfect answers make to all and singular the premises; and further to stand to, perform, and abide such further order, direction, and decree therein, as to this honorable court shall seem meet, and that your orator may have such other relief in the premises as the nature and circumstances of the case may require and to this honorable court shall seem meet; and your orator shall ever pray.

JAMES STEVENS.

And on the sixth day of October, 1847, the following answer was made:

Answer of Isaac H. Cady.

Circuit court of the United States, for the district of Rhode Island.

JAMES STEVENS }
vs. }
ISAAC H. CADY. }

The answer of said Isaac H. Cady to said bill, or so much thereof as he is advised it is material for him to answer, is as follows, saving to himself all advantage from any informality or insufficiency in said bill, he answering saith, that he hath been informed and believes, and so states the facts to be, that Sarah Stevens, of Fall river, in Massachusetts, on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1846, having recovered a judgment against said James Stevens for one hundred and seventy-six dollars damages, and eighteen dollars and twenty-three cents, costs of suit, before the court of common pleas, held at Taunton, in and for Bristol county, in said State of Massachusetts, on the second Monday of March, 1846, which court had jurisdiction of said cause, took out from said court an execution duly issued by said court under the seal thereof and signed by the clerk thereof, and dated the 11th day of April, 1846, all in due form of law, ready to be produced and shown as this honorable court may direct, commanding the sheriff of said county of Bristol, that of the goods, chattels, or land of the said James Stevens, within said county, he should cause to be paid and satisfied unto said Sarah Stevens, or the value thereof in money, the said sum of one hundred and ninety-four dollars and twenty-three cents in the whole, and twenty-five cents for said writ of execution, and thereof also to satisfy himself for his lawful fees in the premises, and for want of such goods, chattels, or lands of the said James Stevens, by him shown or found within his precincts to the acceptance of the said Sarah, the said sheriff was commanded in and by said writ to take the body of said James Stevens, and him commit to the county jail at Taunton or New Bedford, in said county of Bristol, and him detain in custody within said jail until he should pay the sum above mentioned with the fees thereon, or be lawfully discharged by said Sarah or by order of law, and that said sheriff should make due return of said writ, with his doings thereon; all which will more fully appear by the records and files of said court of common pleas, for said Bristol county, copies of which are ready to be shown and produced as this honorable court may direct.

And this deponent further answering saith, that said James Stevens neglected to pay said debt and satisfy said execution, and left or turned out at Fall river aforesaid, within the precincts of the sheriff to whom said execution was delivered to be collected, and then and thereby turned out to said sheriff said copperplate on which said map was engraved, by leaving or placing the same where said sheriff might levy on the same in default of payment of said execution; and because said James Stevens neglected to pay and satisfy said execution, and left said property to satisfy the same, said sheriff, at Fall river aforesaid, on or about the 25th day of April, 1846, levied said execution upon said copperplate, so as aforesaid engraved for printing said maps, and duly posted and advertised the same for sale to satisfy said execution, and, after the expiration of more than four days after said levy, and, after giving said James Stevens full opportunity to pay said execution, and save said property from being sold if he had chosen so to do, said sheriff, on or about the 6th of May, 1846, at Fall river aforesaid, sold at public auction said copperplate so as aforesaid engraved with said engraving thereon, to this defendant, Isaac H. Cady, for the sum of two hundred and forty-five dollars, he being the highest bidder for the same; and on the 9th day of May, 1846, this defendant paid said sheriff said sum of two hundred and forty-five dollars for said plate, and received the same from said sheriff as his own property, and ever since hath, and now has, the same in his, this defendant's, possession, and hath used said plate, so as aforesaid engraved, for printing said maps by him made and sold, and for no other purpose, and hath not used any other plate for such purpose, and that all the maps of said State, referred to in said bill as printed or sold, were printed from and by the use of said plate, and none other.

And this defendant further answering saith, that with said money, paid to said sheriff, he paid and satisfied said execution against the complainant, and all his fees, and returned about sixty-two dollars of said money to said Stevens, which he received and appropriated to his own use, as the defendant hath been informed and believes.

And this defendant further answering saith, that said copperplate without said engraving was of no value except for old copper, and as such could not have exceeded in value the sum of five or ten dollars, as this deponent believes; that the principal value of said plate arose from the map engraved upon it, and that for the engraved plate this defendant bid said sum, which he paid said sheriff for the same.

And this defendant submits to this honorable court, that, by reason of the facts aforesaid, and the purchase of said plate and said map engraved thereon, this defendant became possessed of the right to print and publish said maps of the State of Rhode Island, and sell the same, and that said Stevens hath virtually, impliedly, and legally assented thereunto. And as to any fraud or confederacy charged in said bill, this defendant says the same is not true; and this defendant submits to this honorable court that he is not bound to make any other or further answer to said bill, and prays to be dismissed hence, with his costs in this behalf expended,

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, ss.

On this 4th day of October, 1847, came Isaac H. Cady, and having been sworn, made oath that he had read the foregoing answer, that he knows the contents thereof, and that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are therein stated to be on information or belief only, and that as to those matters he believes it to be true.

CHARLES W. NEWTON,

And on the 6th day of November next the complainant made the following replication:

Replication,

United States circuit court, Rhode Island district. In equity.

The replication of James Stevens, complainant, to the answer of Isaac H. Cady.

for replication thereunto saith, that he will aver and prove his said bill to be true, certain, and sufficient in law to be answered unto, and that the said answer of said defendant is uncertain, untrue, and insufficient in law to be replied unto by this repliant. Without this, that any other matter or thing whatever in the said answer contained, material or effectual in the law to be replied unto, confessed and avoided, traversed or denied, is true. All which matters and things this repliant is and will be ready to aver, maintain and prove, as this honorable court shall direct; and humbly prays, as in and by his said bill he hath already prayed.

JAMES STEVENS,
Complainant.

And at the June term, 1848, on motion of complainant, by agreement, said replication was withdrawn, and exceptions to the answer were then filed in the words following, to wit:

Circuit court of the United States, Rhode Island district. In equity.
Between James Stevens, complainant, and Isaac H. Cady, defendant.

An exception, taken by the said complainant, to the insufficient answer of the said defendant; for the said defendant hath not to the best and utmost of his knowledge, remembrance, information, and belief, full, true, direct, and perfect answer made to the several interrogatories hereinafter numbered and set forth, from 1 to 8 inclusive, as by the note in the bill of this complainant he is required to answer, that is to say:

1. Whether any, and if any what, number of copies of the map above named you, or your servants, workmen, agents, or others, have printed, or caused to be printed, by your or their order, or by either of their orders, for your and their, or either of their, use or benefit?

JAMES STEVENS,
Complainant.

At the rule day in October, 1848, the following orders were entered:

Rule day, October, 1848.

Walter S. Burges, esq., who has heretofore been solicitor of record in the above cases, having moved at the June term, 1848, to have his name stricken from said cases on the docket, it is now ordered that his name be taken off as of that term.

The respondents move in both said cases for surety for costs. It is ordered that surety be given in the sum of $200, to the satisfaction of the district clerk within twenty days.

Exceptions overruled without costs, and replication ordered to be filed in fifteen days, otherwise causes to stand on bill and answer.

At the November term following, the surety above required was given, as follows, viz:

Bond for costs.

Know all men by these presents, that we, James Stevens, of Stonington, in the State of Connecticut, as principal, and Jonathan T. Almy, of the town and county of Newport, in the State of Rhode Island, &c., merchant, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto Isaac H. Cady, late of Providence, in Rhode Island district, but now of the city and county of New York, bookseller, in the full and just sum of two hundred dollars; to the payment of which sum, to the said Isaac H. Cady, his executors and administrators, we hereby bind ourselves, our executors, and administrators, by these presents.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas James Stevens, of Stonington, aforesaid, has commenced a suit by bill in equity, which is now pending in the circuit court of the United States, for said Rhode Island district, against the said Isaac H. Cady, and the said court having ordered that the said James Stevens shall give to the said Isaac H. Cady surety for costs in said suit, now, if the said Stevens, as principal, and the said Jonathan T. Almy, as surety, shall will and truly pay, or cause to be paid, all the costs which the said James Stevens shall, by any decree or order of said court, be adjudged to pay in said suit, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force.

Sealed with our seal, and dated this eleventh day of October, 1848.

JAMES STEVENS, [L. S.]
JONATHAN T. ALMY. [L. S.]

Witness—

E. REVETT,
JOHN STEVENS.

Satisfied as to sufficiency of above.

JOHN T. PITMAN, Clerk.

And at the same term a motion was made by the complainant for a rehearing, which was afterwards withdrawn, and leave given to amend bill in sixty days, and also to amend answer, if necessary.

And afterwards, at the same term, on motion of respondent, it was ordered that the complainant, he not having amended his bill as above allowed, file his replication in thirty days; in default whereof the cause to be set down for hearing at the June term, on bill and answer.

And at the April rule day, 1849, the complainant filed in court the following petition for a commission to take testimony:

JAMES STEVENS, complainant,
vs.

ISAAC H. CADY, respondent. }
To the honorable circuit court of the United States, for the Rhode

The complainant in this bill prays a commission to issue to take testimony, and proposes that the testimony be taken upon oral interrogatories, by the parties or their agents, without filing any written interrogatories.

JAMES STEVENS,

Which was not acted upon, because no replication had been filed.

within the time specified. On the 21st of said April the following replication was filed:

Replication.

United States circuit court, Rhode Island district, in equity.

vs.
ISAAC H. CADY. }

The replication of James Stevens, complainant, to the answer of Isaac H. Cady, respondent.

This repliant, saving and reserving to himself all and all manner of advantage of exception to the manifold insufficiencies of the said answer, for replication thereunto saith, that he will aver and prove his said bill to be true, certain, and sufficient in law to be answered unto, and that the said answer of said defendant is uncertain, untrue, and insufficient in law to be replied unto by this repliant; without this, that any other matter or thing whatever in the said answer contained, material or effectual in the law to be replied unto, confessed and avoided, traversed or denied, is true; all which matters and things this repliant is and will be ready to aver, maintain, and prove, as this honorable court shall direct; and humbly prays, as in and by his said bill he hath already prayed.

And another petition for a commission to take testimony was filed April 25th, as follows: In bills,

vs.
ISAAC H. CADY. }

And

vs.
GLADDING & PROUD. }

When, on the rule day in October last, bonds were required of me, it was inquired how many depositions would probably be taken, my answer was, "not exceeding 3 or 4," then the bonds were ordered to be given for two hundred dollars; I inferred from this that I could take testimony at any time when the commissions should issue; and, in consequence of my exceptions being overruled, that the replications which were filed before, and which were, and still are, filed with the papers in these bills, would attach. In fact, I left those replications among the papers with the bills for the purpose of their being ready filed, in court, to be used when required. At the November term of this court, I applied for and obtained permission to amend my bill, and it was to have been done in 60 days, or go to trial on bill and answer.

At the expiration of the 60 days I was senseless with sickness, and remained in bed 100 days, and am still too unwell to leave my room. I applied, on the 30th March, to the circuit court for commissions to issue to take testimony, and sent my application to the clerk of this court on that day, and requested the clerk to enter on the order book, "The complainant in bills, James Stevens vs. Isaac H. Cady, same vs. Gladding & Proud, applies for commissions to issue to take testimony in said causes." Rule day, April, 1849. The commission may be joint. This complainant now prays this honorable court that he may now file his replications, as those already filed have been considered not in proper time, and that the objections of these respondents' counsel to filing these replications be overruled, and that the commissions issue.

JAMES STEVENS.

Rule day, May, 1849.

And at the rule day in June following, the respondents assented to the issuing of the commission, under the following terms:

Agreement of respondents.

We agree that a commission may issue to take the testimony of witnesses on interrogatories, in the cases Stevens vs. Cady, and Stevens vs. Gladding & Proud, on condition that the cases shall be tried at the next term of the circuit court, if the respondents claim a trial, and that reasonable notice and accommodation be extended to respondents and counsel in taking the testimony.

To the honorable the circuit court of the United States, for the Rhode Island district.

Joseph S. Pitman, the within named commissioner, respectfully reports, that, in conformity with the directions herein contained, he took, on the fourteenth day of June, A. D. 1849, at Providence, the deposition of Henry F. Walling, who was first duly summoned to appear at his office to give evidence in the within named cause; and that said Walling, having first been duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, gave his deposition hereto annexed, which was reduced to writing by me in his presence, and by him signed in my presence, no other person being present; and that, on the fifteenth day of June, A. D. 1849, the within named Sarah Sherman, of Newport, having been first duly summoned, appeared before the above named commissioner, at Newport, and having been first duly sworn as aforesaid, gave her deposition hereto annexed, which was reduced to writing in her presence by me, and by her signed in my presence, no other person being present; and that, on the same day, under an agreement hereto annexed, signed by James Stevens, for himself, and Charles S. Bradley, esq., for the respondent, at Newport, he took the deposition of Chester W. Answer. Mr. Cady gave me one of them shortly after they were published; I do not recollect the date. I obtained it at Mr. Cady's book-store; I think the map was dated 1846. It was called the latest edition of Stevens' map, I believe. I cannot show the map, as it is not now in my possession. The title, as near as I remember, was "Map of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, surveyed trigonometrically and in detail, by James Stevens, topographer and civil engineer, Newport, R. I., with corrections and additions by S. B. Cushing and H. F. Walling." I think the date is 1846. I have no means of identifying the particular map I had from others of the same edition.

dence for that purpose? State when, where, and under what circumstances.

Answer. I was in Providence, at the City hotel, on the 14th of February, 1833; Mr. Stevens' son brought to me from Fall river two of those maps. I went to Mr. Cowell's office, clerk of the district court, for the district of Rhode Island, and placed in his hands both of these maps. He told me he had received one already. I replied, that Mr. Stevens had directed me to deliver both these to him, and I did so. I delivered them on the 14th of February, 1833.

And afterwards, at the same term, Mr. Stevens having the election to return the price of the plate or not, elected not to return the same. Upon which the respondent moves that the bill be dismissed; which is dismissed, as follows:
